RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING- WAIVER PERIODS

Within Own League—No waivers necessary from last day of season to midnight, June 15. Waivers are necessary from midnight, June 15 (Pacific Coast Time) to final day of the season.

Inter-League—Waivers are necessary at all times except during the two inter-league trading periods. (The first inter-league trading period allows for the assignment of player contracts from one major league to another without waviers in the period starting 12:01 Pacific Coast Time, February 15th, and ending at midnight, March 15th, Pacific Coast Time. The second inter-league trading period comes five days after the close of the World Series and continues until midnight of the night preceding the last scheduled day of the Winter Meetings (Annual Meetings) (the time to be that of the city in which the meetings are held).

National Association—Waivers are required at all times for assignment to National Association, except for optional assignments within three years of date player first reported to the major leagues.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule."

(a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup card presented to the umpire-in-chief.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A runner may be substituted for the Designated Hitter and the runner assumes the role of Designated Hitter.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUPSENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

(1) A curfew imposed by law;

(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;

(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);

(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.

(5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:

(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.

(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a)(5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

(1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or

(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled doubleheader between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or

(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

D.H. RULE CHANGE FOR 1981

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

INTENTIONALLY PITCH AT THE BATTER

Rule 8.02 (d)

If, in the umpire's judgment, such a violation occurs, the umpire shall warn the pitcher and his manager that another such pitch will mean immediate expulsion of the pitcher. At the same time the umpire shall warn the opposing manager that such an infraction by his pitcher shall result in that pitcher's expulsion.

If, in the umpire's judgment, there is another such pitch during the game by any pitcher, the umpire shall eject the pitcher from the game.

If, in the umpire's judgment, circumstances warrant, one or both teams may be officially "warned" prior to the game or an actual violation during the game in progress.

(League Presidents may take additional action under authority provided in Rule 9.05.)

PLAYER LIMITS—ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS. The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24 . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and

(3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.

(b) He enters the game with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. local time, it can be completed. In Baltimore, no inning may begin after 11:59 p.m., but play must end at 11:59 Saturday night regardless of the situation.

Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME-WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

"Baseball . . . There is no game like it!"

Herewith are a few excerpted quotes from stories and statements printed around the U.S. in recent months. The Red Book editors thought it might be a pleasant way to introduce this year's book.

. . . wrote Frank Dolson in the Philadelphia Inquirer. "No game as beautifully simple, as magnificently complex. It is a game of anticipation, of move and counter-move—a cerebral game, an absorbing game. Baseball is so many things to so many people. The memories it creates are so vivid, so lasting. Incredible . . . ridiculous . . . but the details of games played a quarter century ago remain etched in your mind."

* * * * * * * * * *

"After nearly 10 years of other forms of journalism, and feeling at times like Rip Van Winkle, this writer returned to baseball last March, trying to stay out of the press box as much as possible, trying to be receptive to what the fans really saw, and what the players really did.

"The daily surprises, the continual heroism of the George Bretts and the Steve Carltons, the contact between player and fan, reminded me that no other sport has nearly as much ritual or improvisation or history or individualism or fine skills" . . . George Vecsey, New York Times

* * * * * * * * * *

"Baseball is clearly our number one sport. Nothing else can touch it . . . baseball is solidly back on top right now. No one has to take the word of a columnist. The numbers prove it . . . it is unlike any other game in the way its confrontations can be reduced to such human terms . . .' baseball is a game for everyone." . . . Bill Tanton, Baltimore Evening Sun

* * * * * * * * * *

"It's still the greatest show in sports," says Los Angeles Times syndicated columnist Jim Murray of the World Series. . . . "The World Series. Fall classic. Office pools. Instant replays. Second guesses. A solid link with the past. The sport of open trolleys and straw hats is the sport of jet planes and the safari jacket and gold chains. . . . Every Series is different, but every one is the same, in a way. . . .

"Never mind. No matter who's in it, who sees it, where it is, or how long it lasts, it's still the World Series, the greatest show in sports. I love every hour of it, and I hope it goes seven and is won by a second-string shortstop who wears glasses and needs the money."

"From time to time over the years, poll takers and soothsayers, their eyes on the box office, have proclaimed baseball to be a dying sport. They should travel the land and gaze at vacant lots. Nothing has changed. Nine-year-olds still take mighty practice swings holding the bat at the very end, for to choke up on the handle is to admit you are not yet a man. The ten-yearold shortstop still talks it up to the 11-year old pitcher—'Make him hit to us, baby!'—and prays to God that it doesn't come too hard to handle.

"Those who predict baseball's death have never swung from the heels and, wonder of wonders, actually connected and sent the ball on a low arc over the infield—and rounded first to see, wonder of wonders, the outfielders still chasing it. A triple! After all those swings that stung your hands and resulted in timid pop-ups, an honest-to-goodness triple! The muscles of millions of American men still remember the precise feeling, the time it didn't sting. It was a miracle, which recurs every spring. That is why baseball, the best game, will never die." . . . Charles Kuralt, Dateline America (CBS)

* * * * * * * * * *

"Escape. That is what baseball offers. It is one thing we have left that cuts through all economic and social barriers. What baseball offers merely is an island of stability in a completely unstable world. I know of nothing as unchanging as a game of baseball.

"Baseball . . . is more generally accepted than any other game, more universal, more gregarious. It is a game to be savored, not gulped. It is a game where people can lose themselves, and talk to the stranger next to them without missing three plays. When you go to the ballpark, even when you are alone, you are not alone. You are a participant, as much as you are a spectator." . . . Bill Veeck

"Whoever wants to know the heart and mind of America had better learn baseball."
. . . Jacques Barzun

OUR FRONT COVER

The cover illustrations feature the American League's award winning "Men of the Year." Baseball's "Player of the Year" clearly was George Brett, Kansas City's brilliant and colorful third baseman. He is pictured in the top three color photos—batting, being interviewed at Royals' Stadium after an LCS game and raising his hands in acknowledging the cheers of K.C. fans when his average climbed to .401 on August 17th. . . . George led the league with a .390 average, highest in the majors since Ted Williams' .406 in 1941. . . . Cover photo at lower left is Steve Stone of Baltimore, winner of the Cy Young Award with a major league leading 25-7 record. At lower right taking a healthy cut is Cleveland's "Rookie of the Year"—Joe Charboneau, who batted .289 with 23 homers and 87 RBIs. All three players are covered in more detail in this Red Book.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JAMES (Jim) LOUIS FREGOSI—Born April 4, 1942, San Francisco, CA; Residence: Santa Ana, CA...Married (Jan), two children...Height: six feet, two inches; Weight: 205 pounds...Named manager June 1, 1978, succeeding Dave Garcia.

During the past two years the fiery San Francisco native has watched his team sustain a catastrophic 98 injuries which caused him to juggle the line-up, using a total of 193 combinations (47 injuries—81 line-ups in 1979 and 51 injuries with 112 batting orders last year). The results: In '79 the Angels enjoyed their top season, setting a team record with 88 wins and the first division championship in club annals. In '80 the Angels finished sixth in a seven team division with a 65-95 log, the worst in California's history. During his tenure as Angels' manager, Fregosi's clubs have compiled a 215-223 (.491) record. It's the third highest victory total by an Angels' manager. In eight-and-a half years Bill Rigney was 625-707 (.469) while Lefty Phillips' clubs were 222-225 (.497) in almost three years. Fregosi's playing career spanned 18 major league seasons during which he boasted a .265 lifetime average. He still is the Angels' lifetime record holder in 10 offensive categories. Originally acquired by the Angels on December 14, 1960, in the expansion draft from the Boston Red Sox, Fregosi earned All-Star recognition six times. He was voted the Owners' Trophy, symbolic of the MVP on three occasions; was a Gold Glove recipient in 1964 and, by a vote of fans, was selected the all-time greatest Angel in 1969.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY LaRUSSA—Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, Florida; Residence: Palos Hills, Illinois . . . Married (Elaine), one child . . . Height, six feet, one inch; Weight: 185 pounds . . . Named (manager) August 2, 1972, succeeding Don Kessinger.

The only major league manager who is also a licensed attorney, Tony LaRussa led the White Sox out of the blocks to the fastest start of any team in the American League last season. May 21, the Sox found themselves perched on top of the A.L. West, one game ahead of the Kansas City Royals, with a 22-16 record. The team couldn't keep up the pace, however, and wound-up fifth in the West, with a 70-90 record, despite an 11th-hour surge that saw them win their last four games of the season and eight of their final ten games. LaRussa heads into the 1981 season with a big league won-loss record of 97-117. After being named to lead the Sox in 1979, LaRussa guided the team to a 27-27 record in the remaining days of the season, after compiling a 54-48 record as pilot of the Sox' AAA team at Iowa. LaRussa's first managerial effort was as skipper of the Sox' AA club at Knoxville, where he led the club to first half honors in the Southern League in '78, with a 49-21 record. (He spent the second half of the '78 season as first base coach with the big league club.) A star athlete at Jefferson High (Tampa), he signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics, making his major league debut with the A's in 1963 (34 games). He also spent times in the majors with the Atlanta Braves and Cubs. He closed out his playing career in 1977 with New Orleans of the American Association.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON—Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA...Married (Carol), three children...Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds...Became 28th manager of the Tigers replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

Sparky Anderson is starting his second full season as manager of the Tigers. And despite a disappointing finish in 1980, he's still convinced the Tigers can be the team of the 80s. Sparky came to Detroit on June 14, 1979, with one of the most successful managerial careers in the history of baseball. His lifetime winning percentage (.584) is second only to Baltimore's Earl Weaver (.599) for active managers, and is sixth best for any manager with 10 years experience since 1900. Before joining the Tigers, Sparky held the reins in Cincinnati, 1970-78. It was there that he earned his reputation as one of the best in the business behind the bench as he guided the Reds to five division titles, four NL pennants and back-to-back World's Championships in 1975 and 1976. Sparky was named NL Manager-of-the-Year in 1972 and 1975. His all-time record of 919-636 was the best for any manager during the decade of the 70s, narrowly beating out Weaver (944-656, .590). Only Weaver's teams won more games in that period. After assuming duties for the Tigers, he finished 1979 with a 56-50 mark and posted an 84-78 record in 1980. If ever there was a man with the grit and determination to succeed, Sparky Anderson fills the bill. A tireless worker, Sparky was hired through the 1984 season. Previously, he played 10 seasons in the minor leagues and one, 1959, in the majors with Philadelphia. His managerial experience began with Toronto of the International League in 1964 and spanned five years before being hired for one season as coach with the San Diego Padres in 1969.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

JAMES GOTTFREID FREY—Born May 26, 1931, Cleveland, . . . Married (Joan), four children . . . Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight 170 pounds . . . Named Royals Manager October 24, 1979.

In first season as major league manager, Frey led the Royals to their first American League pennant and World Series as the club captured its fourth West title. Under his guidance, Kansas City also posted its second highest victory total with a 97-65 record. Prior to being named Royals' manager, Frey spent 15 years in the Baltimore Orioles' organization. He served as the Orioles' hitting instructor from 1970-79 and first base coach from 1976-79. He was bullpen coach from 1970-75, a scout from 1966-69, managed the Blue Field Orioles in 1964-65 and has been a hitting instructor and training program coordinator for the Orioles' Florida Instructional League Club. His managing experience also includes the 1973 and 74 winters at Magallanes in the Venezuelan League. Frey never played major league baseball despite a sparkling 14-year minor league career in which he compiled a .302 lifetime average. He won the batting title in 1957 at Tulsa in the Texas League when he hit .336 and in 1960 at Rochester in the International League when he hit .317. While winning his first batting title he also led the league in seven offensive categories and was selected as the League's Most Valuable Player. Was originally signed by the Milwaukee Braves.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT (BUCK) LEROY RODGERS—Born August 16, 1938, Delaware, Ohio; Residence: Yorba Linda, California; Married (Judy), four daughters; Height: six feet, two inches; Weight: 195 . . . Named Brewer Manager (Interim: March 6-June 6; Acting Manager: September 9-October 5) on October 6, 1980.

Assumed the duty as interim manager when George Bamberger sustained heart problems during spring training, 1980. Led the club to a 26-21 mark, three and a half games behind frontrunning New York before Bamberger returned as the Brewer skipper on June 6th. Buck remained as the club's third base coach, where he has served in that capacity since February of 1978. He was called upon once again to fill the role as acting manager on September 9th when Bamberger retired. Rodgers directed the club to 13 wins in the final 23 games of the season. After managing the California Angels Double A team at El Paso to a first place finish in the Texas League in 1977 with a 78-52 record, Buck was slated to handle the Angels Triple A club at Salt Lake City. Instead, he joined the Brewers coaching staff. He previously managed Salinas of the California League to a fifth place finish in 1975. He coached with the San Francisco Giants in 1976 and he was the pitching coach with the Minnesota Twins from 1970-74. As a minor league manager, Rodgers has a 145-125 (.537) record. He spent nine seasons as the Angels catcher before retiring as an active player following the 1969 season. He was originally selected by the Los Angeles Angels in the 1960 expansion draft after playing eight seasons in the Detroit Tigers farm system. Rodgers set an American League record for a rookie in 1962 by catching in 155 games. He was named to the Angels All-Time Team.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ALFRED MANUEL (Billy) MARTIN—Born May 16, 1928, Berkeley, CA . . . Residence: Danville, CA . . . Height: 5 feet, 11 inches; Weight: 170 pounds . . . Named A's manager February 21, 1980.

As a player on the New York Yankees, he played 5 full seasons. Each of those teams won a pennant. He managed the Minnesota Twins and Detroit Tigers to division titles, and after leading the Texas Rangers to a strong second place finish, he returned to New York in 1975 to manage the Yankees. In his two full seasons he led the team to a pennant and a World Championship. In 1980 Billy took over the A's (his 5th AL team). A team that was dead last in the American League in 1979, winning just 54 games, and turned them into one of the most exciting and talked about young teams in baseball. They finished a surprising second in the AL West to the Kansas City Royals, Billy won the AP and UPI Manager of the Year awards. He led the Twins to the West title in 1969, and the Tigers to the Eastern title in 1972; in 1974 Billy led the Rangers to a surprising 2nd place finish, after finishing a dismal 6th in 1973, and won the AP Manager of the Year award. Billy then returned to manage the Yankees in 1975, a team on which he was a sparkplug of their infield, when he played for Casey Stengel from 1950-57. Billy had the Yanks in the World Series in his first two full seasons in N.Y., making them winners for the first time in 12 years. They won the AL Championship in 1976, and he was the AL Manager of the Year; he then followed up in 1977 by leading the Yanks to their first World Championship since 1962. In his 11 years as a major league manager Billy has won 904 games, while losing 725, a .555 percentage, trailing just Earl Weaver and Sparky Anderson among active major league managers. Made a famous catch of a short pop hit by Jackie Robinson to save the 1952 series, and batted .500 in the '53 classic to win the Babe Ruth award. A member of the '56 All Star team. Graduated from Berekely HS in 1946 and signed with Oakland of the PCL. Also played for the Athletics, Tigers, Indians, Reds, Braves and Twins in his 12 year career.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT JAMES (Bob) MATTICK—Born December 5, 1915, Sioux City, IA; Residence: Gilroy, CA . . . Married (Jacqueline) . . . Height: five feet, eleven inches; Weight: 190 pounds . . . Second Manager of the Blue Jays; appointed October 18, 1979.

In his first year as the club's manager he guided the Blue Jays to their best finish ever (67-95). The 67 victories marked a 14 game improvement over 1979 and 8 more than in any previous season. Despite having spent the past 40 years involved in just about all aspects of the game, prior to last season his managerial experience had been limited to a partial season at the helm of Ogden in the Rookie Pioneer League in 1948. He started in baseball as a shortstop with the Los Angeles Angels of the PCL in 1934. Played in the majors with the Cubs and Cincinnati Reds from 1939 to 1942. His playing career was finished at the age of 27 due to an eye injury that resulted in double vision. Became involved in scouting and player development and after spending 1946 as a scout with the Yankees moved on to Cincinnati where he stayed until 1961 except for one year with the White Sox (1948). In 1961 he moved to the Houston Organization as a scout and then over to the Cleveland Indians in 1964. Spent 1967 with Baltimore before helping start up the expansion Seattle Pilots in 1969 and moved to Milwaukee with club as head of Player Development. Moved to Montreal Expos for 5 years ('72 to '76) to do scouting and work with development of their young prospects. Came to Toronto in 1976 as Scouting Supervisor and was instrumental in the drafting and development of Blue Jays original roster. In 1978 he was appointed Director of Player Development and was in charge of all minor league field activities. Known as top flight field organizer, communicator and teacher. Father, Wally (Chick) Mattick was former major league player with Chicago White Sox (1912-13) and St. Louis Cardinals (1918).

NEW OWNERSHIP FOR THREE CLUBS

Since the close of the 1980 season, there have been three ownership changes of consequence in the American League.

First, the family of the Levi-Strauss Co. have purchased the Oakland Athletics from Charles O. Finley. Emil Roy Eisenhardt is the new club president and Walter J. Haas is Executive Vice-President of the new A's.

Jerry Reinsdorf, a Chicago real estate executive, and Eddie Einhorn, a television executive, are the new general partners in the purchase of the Chicago White Sox from the Bill Veeck group.

And George Argyros, a southern California builder and realtor, is the new principal owner of the Seattle Mariners, along with Stanley Golub, Danny Kaye, Walter E. Schoenfeld and Lester M. Smith of the original partnership group, plus Warren Finley.

1 Chicago's Comiskey Park was built in great haste in early 1910. Ground was broken on February 15th and by mid-March the foundation was nearing completion. Seats were installed in June, 1910, and the park was ready for play by mid-season. In the 1920's the bleachers were expanded to raise the park's capacity to 41,000 and that was the only major change in Comiskey Park since it was built. The exploding scoreboard was completed prior to the 1960 season, and the park has undergone periodic maintenance renovation.

2 Minnesota's Metroplitan Stadium in Bloomington was begun in the fall of 1954 and opened in April, 1956 for the AAA American Association's season. The Minneapolis Millers played in Metropolitan for five seasons (through 1960). During the 1961 season, the first at Metropolitan Stadium for the Minnesota Twins, a double-deck grandstand was added to the existing original triple-deck grandstand and temporary bleachers were also added. In 1964 construction was started on a double-deck pavillion in left field which was opened for the All-Star Game of 1965. A new downtown domed stadium is being built in Minneaplis, with a scheduled 1982 opening.

3 In 1964 Turnpike Stadium was constructed for the Dallas-Ft. Worth Spurs of the Texas League to play in for the 1965 season. Its seating capacity was 10,600. When the Washington Senators were transferred and became the Texas Rangers, Turnpike was renamed Arlington Stadium. In late 1971 and 1972 the stadium was enlarged to seat 35,698 and was enlarged again to 41,097 for the 1978 season. The leftfield scoreboard features an outline of the map of Texas.

4 California's Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966 after an August 31, 1964 ground-breaking. New construction completed in 1980 to accommodate the NFL Rams increased seating capacity to 67,335 for baseball and nearly 70,000 for football. A new scoreboard was installed on the upper left field deck while the old "Big A" board was preserved and moved behind the right field area. With the addition of 108 plush executive suites surrounding the field, Anaheim Stadium is now one of the most luxurious multi-purpose stadiums in the world.

5 Ground was broken for the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on April 15, 1964, with the first Stadium event being held there on September 18, 1966. The 1968 season brought the A's to Oakland and the Coliseum's 50,000 capacity for baseball. The Stadium is three-tiered and features a recessed playing field—28 feet below ground—for easy entry and minimal stair climbing. It is part of a combination of a major league Stadium, multi-purpose arena and adjoining Exhibit Hall.

6 Royals Stadium and the unique Harry S. Truman Sports Complex have become landmarks in Kansas City. Built exclusively for baseball in 1973, the stadium opened on April 10th. Royals Stadium features Tartan turf, a 322-foot wide water spectacular, and a 12-story high scoreboard in the shape of the Royals' crest, which contains 16,320 light bulbs. It is considered one of the premier baseball stadia in America.

7 The A.L.'s only domed stadium—the Kingdome in Seattle—is the first facility of its kind in the West. Ground was broken for the King County domed stadium on November 2, 1972 and work completed on March 27, 1976. Less than a year later, April 5, 1977, the expansion Seattle Mariners played in the Kingdome and Major League Baseball returned to Seattle. The stadium features an Astroturf playing surface, a matrix scoreboard, a Telscreen with color instant replay capabilities and an average temperature of 68-72 degrees.

EASTERN DIVISION
(In Order of Seniority)

8 Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born, with Detroit as a charter member. Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium on January 1, 1961. A renovation was started in November, 1977 after the historic plant was sold to the City of Detroit for $1.00 and leased back to the Tigers for 30 years with a 30-year renewal option. Prior to the sale the Tigers financed the installation of a multi-vapor field lighting system and construction of a pressbox to replace the one destroyed by fire earlier that year. By Opening Day, 1980, installation of all modern plastic seats will be completed.

9 Construction began on Fenway Park in 1911 and the park was ready for the opening game of the 1912 season. It replaced Boston's Huntington Avenue Grounds. Fenway was revamped in 1933, for the 1934 season, with an increased seating capacity of slightly over 34,000. With the exception of minor changes, Fenway Park stands virtually the same today, with its famed "Green Monster" left field wall and cozy surroundings.

10 Yankee Stadium in New York has been the home of the Yankees since its opening on April 18, 1923. The Stadium underwent a complete modernization program during the 1974 and 1975 seasons and reopened again in 1976. "New" Yankee Stadium's scoreboard has an instant replay facility. The site has hosted 30 of the Yankees' 32 World Series, with the Yanks winning all of their 22 World Championships there. Original construction began on May 5, 1922; lights were installed in 1946 and a new scoreboard in 1950. In 1959 the Yanks added a new board with the first changeable message area at a major league park in America.

11 Work was started on Cleveland Stadium (the largest baseball seating capacity—76,713—in baseball) in 1930 and completed in 1931. The first baseball game was played there on July 31, 1932, but the Indians' first full season in the Stadium was 1933 after which the club returned to League Park, playing only occasionally at the Stadium. The team returned on a full-time basis in 1947 and has remained there since. Seating renovations were made in time for the 1975 season and the Stadium's computerized scoreboard was completed in time for the 1978 season.

12 Baltimore's Memorial Stadium is dedicated to the men who fought in World Wars I and II. It replaced Baltimore Stadium, primarily a football facility, and was financed by two city bond issues. Construction began in May, 1949, and was completed in October, 1953, in time for the arrival of the Orioles in 1954. Renovations and changes were made in 1959, 1960, 1964 and 1978 and, just recently, six new towers were constructed housing a new ticket window and additional storage space.

13 The construction of Milwaukee's County Stadium was first proposed in 1920, but it wasn't until October 19, 1950 that excavation work for the foundation began. In 1953 the County Board voted for the construction of additional seating to increase the original capacity of 36,011 to 43,394. The outfield wall was constructed in 1960 and moving ramps were installed in 1962 and 1964. The years 1972, 1973, 1974 and 1975 brought additional construction, changes and renovation to bring the Stadium's capacity to the present 53,192. The most recent facelifting at County Stadium is an advanced electronic scoreboard system which was installed and operating for the 1980 season.

14 Exhibition Stadium, on the grounds of the Canadian National Exhibition, constructed 1975-1976, opened for baseball on April 7, 1977, and became the home of the expansion Toronto Blue Jays. Situated on a 350-acre complex of exhibition buildings, amusement park, landscaped gardens, restaurants and concert facilities, the stadium is owned by the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto and operated by the Exhibition Stadium Corporation. Exhibition Stadium features an Astroturf surface and an electronic scoreboard, which was installed in 1978.

PITCHING ... CG = Complete Games; GF = Games Finished; SHO = Shutouts; SV = Saves; BFP = Batters Faced by Pitcher; HB = Hit Batter; WP = Wild Pitch; BK = Balk.

FIELDING ... TC = Total Chances; DP = Double Plays; TP = Triple Plays; PB = Passed Balls.

A.L. ATTENDANCE GOES OVER 20 MILLION THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

For the third consecutive season, the American League attracted more than 20 million fans to its home games in 1980. Although falling slightly below the all-time sports league attendance mark set in 1979, the A.L. drew 21,890,052 last season. Three teams set all-time home attendance records ... Baltimore, Kansas City and New York. The Yankees, in fact, broke the 1948 Cleveland all-time league record with 2,627,417.

Three clubs had paid home attendance over two million—the California Angels, Kansas City Royals and New York Yankees. All 14 A.L. clubs attracted over a million on the road last season. For a record fourth consecutive year, the Yankees drew more than two million on the road with a M.L. record 2,460,645. It was the Yankees' record eighth straight year of an attendance increase at home.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of major league service. A year of service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season.

Dan Quisenberry, the articulate submarine-throwing relief ace of the champion Kansas City Royals, won the 1980 Rolaids Relief Award with an all-time record 83 points.

With two points each for a win and a save, and minus one point for a loss, the moustached right-hander posted a 12-7 record with 33 saves. The Yankees' Rich Gossage was runner-up with 76 points on a 6-2 won-lost record with 33 saves.

Rollie Fingers of San Diego led the National League for the third time with an 11-9 record and 23 saves for 59 points. Fingers now is pitching for the A.L.'s Milwaukee Brewers.

Overall, the New York Yankee bullpen was the most effective in both leagues, winning the major league Rolaids Relief Award for teams.

BRETT WINS 1980 AMERICAN LEAGUE MVP AWARD; CRONIN RECEIVES 1930 MVP 50 YEARS LATE

"The Player of the Year" in the majors easily won the 1980 American League Most Valuable Player Award following his .390 season . . . the highest batting average in the majors since Ted Williams batted .406 in 1941. George Brett, playing through a variety of injuries that handicapped him most of the season, took 17 first place ballots in the Baseball Writers Association voting for MVP. The personable Kansas City third baseman received nine second place and two third place nominations among the 28 ballots cast for a total of 335 points. The Yankees' Reggie Jackson was runnerup with five firsts and a total of 234 points while Rich Gossage, Yankee relief ace, was third with four firsts and 218 points. Only other players to receive first place votes were K.C.'s Willie Wilson and the Yanks' Rick Cerone with one each. There are two votes in each A.L. city (14 points for first place, nine for second, eight for third, etc.).

STONE TAKES CY YOUNG AWARD IN 10TH MAJOR LEAGUE SEASON

In his tenth major league season, spanning service in both leagues and with a lifetime 78-79 record going into the 1980 season, Steve Stone of the Baltimore Orioles topped all major league pitchers with a 25-7 record last season. The personable Oriole right-hander was so effective that he was named starting pitcher in the All-Star Game at Los Angeles. He faced nine men, hurling three perfect innings against the National League. It was the fifth time in eight years that an Oriole pitcher had won the Cy Young.

Stone edged Oakland's Mike Norris, both pitchers receiving 13 first place votes. Stone was on three more ballots than Norris and the three were second place votes to give him the edge. Rich Gossage of the Yankees was third in the voting.

After a 2-3 start in 1980, Stone won 14 consecutive games (in 17 starts) from May 9 through July 26. Stone, 33, set a club record for wins in a season.

. . AWARDS . .

ROYALS' HAL MC RAE WINS SECOND DESIGNATED HITTER AWARD IN 1980

Hal McRae of the champion Kansas City Royals won his second Outstanding Designated Hitter trophy in 1980 after first winning the American League-Manchester (N.H.) Union Leader award in 1976. The trophy, presented annually at the Union Leader baseball dinner, was given to McRae after he won a solid victory in the voting by "beat" writers, broadcasters and public relations people in the A.L.

Playing almost exclusively as a designated hitter in 1980, the veteran right-handed hitter batted .293, leading all league DHs in at bats, runs scored, hits, doubles and RBIs.

Overall, two American League clubs batted over .300 collectively in designated hitting—California at .310 and Texas at .301.

ODH winners have been:

1980 Hal McRae, Kansas City
1979 Willie Horton, Seattle
1978 Rusty Staub, Detroit
1977 Jim Rice, Boston
1976 Hal McRae, Kansas City
1975 Willie Horton, Detroit
1974 Tommy Davis, Baltimore
1973 Orlando Cepeda, Boston

DID YOU KNOW

. . . that the Detroit Tigers topped all major league teams in scoring in 1980 with 830 runs scored?

. . . the New York Yankees won their first pennant 60 years ago—in 1921. They've won 32 overall and 22 World Series, both records?

. . . Don Larsen pitched his perfect World Series game for the Yankees 25 years ago . . . Oct. 8, 1956?

. . . that 20 years ago the original Washington Senators moved to Minnesota (Twins) and the California (Los Angeles) Angels were born as an expansion club?

YASTRZEMSKI APPROACHING CAREER MILESTONES IN GAMES, AT BATS, HITS

Boston's distinguished veteran—Carl Yastrzemski—is approaching a host of records that 21 years of service will bring to a player of his standing. Now entering his 21st season with the Red Sox, Yaz needs just 67 games to vault past Willie Mays, Stan Musial and Ty Cobb into second place with 3034 on the all-time list of games played. Only Hank Aaron with 3298 games will have played more. Carl also is high on the list of at bats, hits and doubles leaders.

DID YOU KNOW

. . . that Carl Yastrzemski of the Boston Red Sox leads all active major league players in runs batted in? Going into the 1981 season, Yaz had 1663 RBIs, 14th on the all-time list.

. . . that Bert Campaneris of the California Angels tops all active major leaguers in stolen bases with 638 going into 1981; That's good for sixth place on the all-time list.

. . . that 40 years ago Joe DiMaggio hit safely in a record 56 consecutive games . . . and Ted Williams batted .406, the last player to reach .400?

COOPER, NORRIS MISSED HONORS DESPITE OUTSTANDING SEASONS

Though they didn't match George Brett's .390 or Steve Stone's 25-7 records, Cecil Cooper and Mike Norris had outstanding 1980 seasons.

Cooper hit .300 or better for the fourth year in a row and reached a career high of .352 to bring his lifetime major league batting average to a commendable .306. The big Milwaukee first baseman led the American League in total bases with 335, and was second in hits at 219. His 25 home runs also were a career high. Despite these fine figures, Cecil trailed Brett, Reggie Jackson, Rich Gossage and Willie Wilson in the MVP voting.

Meanwhile, Norris easily posted his best major league season with Oakland last summer, after many promising seasons marred by injuries. Norris had a 22-9 record with 24 complete games and a 2.54 earned run average (second only to Rudy May's—Yankees—2.47). Norris garnered 13 first place votes for the Cy Young Award (the same number as received by (Stone), but lost the race on second place selections.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled doubleheader, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup.

A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

Amend 4.11(d) to read as follows:

(d) A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminnates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PRE-GAME WORKOUT SCHEDULES

The media covering major league baseball generally get their background stories in the two-hour period preceding the game. Fans, too, come out early to watch players in batting and fielding practice. Below is an approximate schedule of the official workout periods before a game. The visiting team is allotted 40 minutes of batting practice and each team takes 10 minutes of fielding practice before a game. With variations of five to 10 minutes, here is the approximate workout schedules at home ball parks in the American League, and the order of these workouts.

HOME TEAM Extra Men take batting until 1 hour, 55 minutes before game time.

HOME TEAM Regulars (starting lineup) take batting until 1 hour, 15 minutes before game time.

VISITING TEAM takes batting until 35 minutes before game time.

VISITING TEAM takes infield practice until 25 minutes before game time.

HOME TEAM takes infield practice until 15 minutes before game time.

Field prepared for game . . . until a few minutes before start of game.

A MAJOR LEAGUE "FIRST" was established in the Seattle Kingdome on September 25th when a father managed against a team on which his son played. Posing before the game were Manager Maury Wills of the Mariners (left) and son Bump Wills who played second base for the Texas Rangers. Dad's team won the game.

BRETT WINS "JOE CRONIN AWARD" FOR DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT

Among his many awards for 1980, George Brett added the prestigious "Joe Cronin Award" for "distinguished achievement in the American League" in 1980. Presentation was made by the former Hall of Fame shortstop, manager, general manager and league president prior to an American League Championship game in Kansas City last October.

It is hardly necessary to repeat here the many achievements of George Brett in 1980. He had no serious contenders for the award honoring the A.L.'s Chairman of the Board. (See photo of Brett and Cronin on page 61.)
